Jail Matters.
There are now only seven prisoners in the Knoxville jail and only one of these haile from Knox county—a smaller number than at any time since the establishment of the Criminal Court.

Conference Minutes.
The Minutes of the 7th Session of the Holston Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, recently bound, for sale at this office. Price is cents per copy.

The Custom House.
The work on the Custom House still goes on energetically. The interior brick walls are going up. A steam sawmill for sawing stone slabs for the floor, will soon go into operation.

Criminal Court.
No business of importance was transacted in this court yesterday. A number of cases were continued, and the court adjourned until the next term in course, which opens on the fourth Monday in January, 1912.

I. O. O. F.
A full attendance of the members of East Tennessee Lodge No. 34 is requested for Tuesday evening, as business of importance will come before the Lodge.

Run Away.
A lumber team belonging to Burr & Terry ran away yesterday morning, near the railroad, and scattered the lumber around promiscuously. The colored driver was thrown from the wagon and fell upon his head, but fortunately, was not hurt.

A Strictly Cash Business.
I have determined to do a strictly cash business in the future. By selling for cash only, I will be able to supply my customers with goods at lower figures, and the court be able to do a business more satisfactory to myself as well as my numerous patrons. JOHN LICHTENWAGER.

Race at the Fair Grounds.
Yesterday a race came off at the Fair Grounds, between Dr. M. M. Alexander's horse, "White Stockings," and Dr. Allen French's mare, "Dido." Dr. Alexander rode his own horse and was badly beaten by the jockey who rode Dr. French's mare. The race excited considerable interest among the friends of the two gentlemen.

another column. At this house it to be found a full stock of iron, nails, wares and buggy materials, the best article of home manufactured saddle trees, which are made especially for his trade, full lines of pocket and table cutlery, and a complete assortment of goods usually found in such establishments. Mr. Van Gilder has been established too long in business to need an encomium from us, but all who purchase from him know that bargains can be obtained both as regards price and quality.

Merit When Due.
We regret to note the fact that we have just completed and delivered the last of an issue of several thousand of the Tennessee Land Register, published by Messrs. Munson & Bailey.
Real Estate and Fire Insurance Agents of our city, and who, we must say, as we have often previously said, are entitled to great credit for their enterprise and zeal in the work of emigration. These gentlemen have published during the past (15) eighteen months from the commencement of their business about (14,000) fourteen thousand circulars, the greater part of which having been printed on fine book paper and in book-form. Their experience teaches that this mode of representing the country and advertising property is the most judicious. The fact that a book will be kept and read and handed to others to read, and they know of many instances where a single Register has been handed around and read by a whole neighborhood, the result of which was to obtain a large number of subscribers. We are confident that the many of whom have visited East Tennessee during the past year. Besides the large number of Land Registers published by these gentlemen they have also published a very correct and complete map of the State, and these, we can also add, that these publications have been most judiciously distributed, the most of which have been sent to parties actually writing for information.

The results of this enterprise and great outlay, are now being realized by our city and country, witnessed by a number of sales of farm lands to persons of considerable means and the building up of our manufacturing and the decision of Messrs. Munson & Bailey, in the decision of being distributed for the benefit of those seeking information about our country. We can also add, that these publications have been most judiciously distributed, the most of which have been sent to parties actually writing for information.

Mechanics' Association.
At the meeting of the Mechanics' Association held on Friday night, Mr. L. S. Clark, the able and active President of the Society, tendered his resignation, which was accepted and the vacancy filled by the election of Mr. C. W. Charlton, whose zeal and energy in whatever cause he espouses is too well known to need any comment.

One striking feature of the proceedings on Friday night was the report of the committee on the subject of "Co-operation." It took strong grounds for the mechanics of this city uniting their capital for the purpose of establishing for the present, at least, a store. The nucleus for such a concern has already been started, as we learn, in North Knoxville. Some leading mechanics are very hopeful of originating a formidable plan of co-operation, and are convinced that the enterprise will meet with general favor so soon as its claims and merits shall have become known.

In this connection we would state that the Association passed a resolution authorizing the committee to call a mass meeting on Saturday day, at the mechanics of Knoxville, in order to take some prompt steps to bring the work of co-operation prominently before them.

Temperance Address.
The address this evening by Prof. T. B. Mc-Lemore on the evils of intemperance delivered for the Band of Hope proved to be a most interesting. The best of order and attention was given by the large and intelligent audience.
The speaker, seemingly inspired by the greatness of his theme, earnestly appealed to the youth, warning them of evils of intemperance in every form, especially in the use of tobacco and in the use of intoxicating drinks. He told them if they did much for this great cause they must use gentle means to get the control of their minds and when this is done they have gained a great victory in this cause that ought to be loved by all Christian people. He also appealed to the Sabbath Schools to be aroused and alive to this cause. He said he hoped that the time would come when this great cause (the cause of temperance) would receive a crowning victory in this land of ours. Yours respectfully, X. I.
FANCY HILL, Knox Co., Nov. 11th, 1911.

Chicago Relief and Aid Society.
A circular issued by this Society has been handed us showing what has been received and what is being done for the relief of the sufferers from the great fire. The actual receipts to date amount to two millions, fifty-one thousand, twenty-three dollars and fifty-five cents. So far as ascertained at that time the entire subscription amounted to about three millions five hundred thousand dollars. The Society is distributing sixty thousand people at regular distributing points. How to shelter the people for winter is now the great problem. The Society has built four thousand houses for twenty thousand people and expect to build seven thousand more, which will accommodate thirty-five thousand persons. A great work has been already done and a great work is still to be done to prevent much suffering among these homeless people this winter. They need all the aid they can get.

Beware of Incendiaries.
Fortunately no fire occurred last week when the fire engine was disabled and its services were not called into requisition; nor was any serious distress occasioned on account of it. But if the fire had taken a turn of the wheel of John Lichtenwager's delivery wagon, there would have been suffering in many families, for hundreds depend on this gentleman to deliver their family supplies daily, and in this connection, we will remark, though it is a well known fact, that the fire engine is a very valuable piece of property in the grocery line, which he delivers free of charge to his customers at their homes.

Masonic Temple.
The work on the Masonic Temple at the corner of Gay and Church streets, has now reached the third story, and is being pushed forward rapidly.

As the figure of the building is developed day by day, it becomes more and more evident that it will be the most handsome in the city.

Explanatory.
We regret that an error occurred in the Criminal Court proceedings, as published last Wednesday morning, in which Capt. J. H.
Walley was mentioned as having had a forefeiture taken against him. The facts are that Capt. W. had no case at all in Court, but was security merely for some one else, and his name appeared through inadvertence. Our attention was only called to the publication last night and we regret the occurrence exceedingly, but hasten to make the amende due. Had there been anything of the kind Capt. Walley would have met his liabilities promptly and never have allowed any one to suffer pecuniary loss through him.

The Corner Store.
There are several corner stores in town, but we have in view more particularly the first class Grocery store of Messrs. Spence & Lee, corner of Market Place and Union streets, where the very best articles for family use can always be found. The predecessor of this firm was the first to commence running a delivery wagon, and Messrs. Spence & Lee keep up the custom.

Personals.
Mrs. Jefferson Davis passed yesterday going South.
Mr. David Bell, of San Antonio, Texas, son of Samuel Bell, died in the city yesterday day from Massachusetts, accompanied by his bride.

We noticed Mr. Chas. D. McGuffey on the streets again yesterday, having returned from his bridal tour.
